LEARN English

For Changing Lives & Opening Doors

Speak the language of global economy...

Language learning is considered the highest cognitive ability. Learning English is very essential these days because English is spoken globally and has become a vital language for education & learning, employment, further career, on job-promotion and even household. This means that fluency and accuracy in English language is essential for everyone. Developing confidence in speaking fluent English will boost your career and will enable you to teach others too.

Who can benefit?

All those pre-primary and primary teachers, mothers, intermediate students who have less exposure to speak in English and would like to improve spoken and writing skills using activity based approach and then this 10 days - 30 hours workshop would provide you an opportunity to learn, speak and write in English in an enabling environment using different activities.

Learning how to speak and write effectively are the most important life-long skills, which are essential for all learners. It is an art to learn how to articulate what you think with simple and succinct manner. Writing gives you a kind of authority that will allow you to work more confidently.

Do not shy away from interactions due to weakness in English!!!
